Be a Part of God's Work at Agape!

We are currently accepting resumes for the following position:
Summer Intern \(Paid\)

The Summer Intern position with Powerlines Community Network (PCN) reports to the Youth Outreach Specialist for Powerlines Community Network (PCN). This internship may include a ministry project that you'll have eight weeks to complete. Intern skills and interests are matched as closely as possible with ministry needs. Through this practical experience, interns see daily ministry in action. We're offering this position to students with a desire to work and improve the lives of under-resourced children and communities. Primary projects include; detailed research on PCN neighborhoods, organizing quarterly Community Cafés, assist with community organizing to empower residents, organizing and serving in afterschool and summer enrichment programs, in PCN communities, assisting with community research projects and events, and organizing reading intervention curriculum, VBS and Bible Studies at the assigned place-based site during summer camp. Interns is to be involved with the youth and assist with programming needs in Frayser, Hickory Hill, Raleigh, and Whitehaven. Working alongside Powerlines staff and families who live, serve, and raise families in an urban context; The Intern will assist staff with community programs and events as well as mentor/tutor youth. The main program is establishing an afterschool and summer enrichment program in each apartment complex, which allows students to have fun, provide homework help and reading intervention, play games, do arts and crafts and learn about Jesus. Interns will lead the reading intervention summer enrichment program. This is an opportunity to put studies to action in a true urban setting where your ideas and time make a big difference.

Education & Experience Required:

College students preferred. Have completed a minimum of 2 years, fulltime, of an undergraduate program; have work and/or volunteer experience; preferably within a community, urban neighborhood, missions abroad, church ministry or campus organization.
