Be a Part of God's Work at Agape!

We are currently accepting resumes for the following position:
Families in Transition (FIT) Case Manager

Agape is seeking a Case Manager for our Families in Transition (FIT) program. As the Case Manager, this successful candidate must have excellent interpersonal skills, knowledge of social services delivery systems, knowledge of resources, good organizational, time management and communication skills. The Case Manager for our FIT program will be responsible for: providing intensive case management and counseling services for families participating in our Families in Transition program; completing timely written initial assessments (and any additional follow-up) for each family to target strengths, need areas, and milestones toward meeting goals; and developing service plan/treatment plans, which will clearly define goals. The Case Manager will provide 24-hour coverage for crisis management as needed.

Education & Experience Required:

Master's Degree in Social Work preferred, but other related Master's Degree acceptable. Also accept a Bachelor's Degree in Social Work or other related field, with at least two years of experience in working with children and families with multiple problems and needs, or any equivalent combination of education, training, and experience which provides the requisite knowledge, skills, and abilities for this position. Candidate must be willing to engage in Agape's Performance Quality and Improvement (also known as Continuous Quality Improvement) standards of quality & excellence.

Qualified Applicants, please send resumes to: Employment@Agapemeanslove.org

About Agape:

Agape Child & Family Services is a faith-based, non-profit organization dedicated to providing children and families in Memphis with healthy homes. Agape serves nearly 10,000 children and families each year in an effort to keep them safe, smart and successful through school-based initiatives and site-based services in under-resourced communities; counseling; homeless services; adoption and foster care. In partnership with the Tennessee Department of Human Services, Agape and its community partners have expanded services via a two-generation model, wholly serving youth and parents in a poverty-reduction strategy, providing support, permanency, and sustainability in Frayser, Hickory Hill and Whitehaven.
