TeamWorks Connectors

Agape is seeking TeamWorks Connectors to support our workforce development efforts in the Hickory Hill, Whitehaven and Frayser areas. As a poverty-reduction initiative, Agape, through its place-based strategy, Powerlines Community Network (PCN), implements a Two Generation paradigm. The Connector works with Powerlines' partner collaborative efforts in their designated PCN communities for a place-based, collective impact community transformation. The goal of the Connector position is to be embedded in both a specific school and a selected site/neighborhood in Memphis with the hope of connecting with youth and families, and assisting by linking them to resources that they desire and need (early childhood education; post-secondary education and workforce; economic supports; health and well-being; and social capital). The Connector is required to go where the people are and build relationships. They must be able to focus on family strengths and recognize the family relationship with youth and families, as well as build relationships with key community partners and stakeholders to leverage resources in response to the family's wishes. They are responsible for facilitating efforts to address the health and welfare of children and families served, which includes seeing that needs are being appropriately addressed, i.e., medical, health, spiritual, emotional, social, employment, educational/training, etc. Additionally, the Connector should have excellent interpersonal skills, knowledge of social services systems, knowledge of resources, good organizational, time management and communication skills. They must possess the ability to work well independently as well as part of a team; work in partnerships and relationships with key community leaders, supporters and advocates. Connectors should ensure program quality, transparency, and accurate reporting.
